BANKERS LIFE FIELDHOUSE

With 750,000 square feet and 18,165 seats, this is a fairly new house that is, remarkably, in just its 15th year, an old home.

Bankers Life Fieldhouse, opened Nov. 6, 1999, when the Indiana Pacers hosted the Boston Celtics, is a step into the future while taking a walk back into history. It's big, yet comfortable. It has all the modern appliances, yet there's that favorite old picture on the wall. It is a building that is unique in today's sports society because the extra effort was made to make it that way. In other words, if you have a religion, you must build the appropriate cathedral.

In Indiana, basketball is religion. Bankers Life Fieldhouse is a cathedral. That's why the home of the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever is unique.

"We wanted this building to have a kind of special feeling to it, that when people came into it they felt part of the tradition that the building is for," said Donnie Walsh, then the Pacers Sports & Entertainment CEO & President who was instrumental in the Fiedlhouse becoming a reality. "I think this is a pure basketball arena that reflects the game itself and the roots of the game."

Ground was broken on July 22, 1997 on the $183 million multi-purpose facility and while there were blueprints, a scale model and dreams, it was hard for anyone at the time to fathom what would evolve. But what has risen 14 stories into the Indianapolis skyline is a fit perfect for the city, the state, the game of basketball at any level and the various events a facility of this type would host.

"There are so many features that make it one-of-a-kind," said Tom Proebstle, Project Designer for Ellerbe Beckett, the Fieldhouse design firm. "The most obvious feature is the two huge glass curtain walls facing east and west that mark the beginning of an incredible architectural promenade as you are approaching downtown on the highway and see the lit-up glass set against the Indianapolis skyline. No other arena in the world can claim this. I'm sure it will be copied many times over."

That's the view from the outside. Inside, the unique look and feel of Bankers Life Fieldhouse takes over. The Entry Pavilion is a vast gathering place that funnels fans to the Grand Staircase. As patrons make their way up the staircase, their view takes them to their first look at the seating bowl (another unique feature) or to large memorabilia cases on each side of the entrance to the Fieldhouse seating bowl.

From there, no matter which direction one takes, it's a nostalgic look. From the signage, to the concession stands, to the sponsor pavilions, to the bathrooms, to the one-of-a-kind TCU Practice Court, to the light fixtures, to the scoreboard, Bankers Life Fieldhouse is unique, distinct and, as Pacers' great Reggie Miller described, "Unbelievable. Absolutely unbelievable. Far beyond my expectations."

Bankers Life Fieldhouse has suites (62), club seats (2,400) and state-of-the-art amenities. But it has a look and feel unlike any other indoor facility.

This unique feel has brought many comparisons and compliments to Bankers Life Fieldhouse. The USA Today calls the Fieldhouse "A Cathedral to Basketball" and Amusement Business Magazine refers to Bankers Life Fieldhouse as "The Camden Yards of Basketball." NBC's Bob Costas said Bankers Life Fieldhouse "is winning raves all around the league, many think it's the best building in the NBA."

A 2006 survey by the Sports Business Journal ranked Bankers Life Fieldhouse as the No. 1 venue in the NBA. An informal ranking in the Orange County Register, in 2008, echoed the same rating.

The Fieldhouse will host the NBA All-Star Game in February 2021.

In addition to hosting the Indiana Pacers and Fever, the Fieldhouse has hosted major boxing events and visits from Pavarotti, Bill Cosby, Bon Jovi, Bruce Springsteen, Elton John and Billy Joel, Bob Seger, George Strait & Reba McIntire, The Boston Pops, John Mellencamp, Paul McCartney, Tim McGraw & Faith Hill, The Dixie Chicks, NSync, AC/DC, Britney Spears, Carrie Underwood, Crosby Stills, Nash & Young, Kid Rock, U2, Hannah Montana, Disney On Ice and Dancing With The Stars. It has also played host to the 2002 FIBA World Basketball Championships, the 2004 FINA World Short Course Swimming Championships and the United States Gymnastics Championships. In April 2011 and 2016, it played host to the NCAA Women's Final Four, and welcomed the NCAA men's regional basketball tournament in 2017. In 2012 the Fieldhouse provided a border to the east side of the Super Bowl Village for Super Bowl XLVI. It has been a nearly annual host of the Big Ten Conference men's and women's basketball tournaments, and a gathering point for the National FFA Convention – the nation's largest annual youth gathering.

Additionally, Bankers Life Fieldhouse has been cited for its compliance and exceeding of ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) requirements.

Bankers Life Fieldhouse was the host site of the 2011 and 2016 NCAA Women's Final Fours, crowning Texas A&M and Connecticut as national champions.

WELCOME TO INDIANAPOLIS

What's to love about Indianapolis?

Plenty.

Indianapolis is a natural destination for people who love sports. There are big-time professional and college sports, led by the NBA Indiana Pacers, the 2012 WNBA champion Indiana Fever and past NFL Super Bowl champion Indianapolis Colts. Don't forget about the world-famous Indianapolis Motor Speedway, home to the world's two largest single-day sporting events (the Indianapolis 500 and the Brickyard 400).

As a premier sports destination, Indy has played host to more than 400 national and international sporting events over the past 30 years, from the Super Bowl and NCAA Final Fours to U.S. Olympic Team Trials and of course the Indy 500.

Besides the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, the city boasts three of the finest sports venues in the world: Bankers Life Fieldhouse (home to the Pacers and Fever), Lucas Oil Stadium (home to the Colts) and Victory Field (home to the Triple-A Indianapolis Indians), not to mention historic Hinkle Fieldhouse on the campus of Butler University. Just a short walk from the NCAA offices and NCAA Hall of Champions are another pair of world-class venues downtown, on the campus of Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). The IUPUI Natatorium has been a frequent host to U.S. Olympic Trials, and the Michael Carroll Track & Field Stadium hosts Indy Eleven Soccer games and frequent Olympic Trial events and the USA Outdoor Track & Field Championships.

Indy is home to six unique "cultural districts," each bustling with its own distinct flavor, flair and mix of pubs, restaurants, shops, arts and attractions. From Mass Ave to Fountain Square, these districts are connected by the recently completed "Cultural Trail." Flanked with $26 million in public art, the 8-mile trail is an incredible way to explore the city.

Then there is the world-class urban park, White River State Park, with seven major attractions creating a border around it. Stroll from the Indianapolis Zoo to the Indiana State Museum to the NCAA Hall of Champions to the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art to the Medal of Honor Winners Memorial. In the summertime, you can also catch a concert performed by renowned recording artists at The Lawn or a baseball game at Victory Field.

White River State Park also serves as the portal to the enchanting Central Canal, an ideal place to walk, jog or ride by bike or boat.

The park is just one of more than 50 major attractions located within Indy's deliberately designed downtown, loaded with dozens of hotels, more than 300 restaurants, shopping, cultural attractions and sports venues within walking distance. Even better, most are connected by the city's system of enclosed skywalks.

Just a short distance from downtown, the Children's Museum of Indianapolis, the world's largest, beckons to the young and young of heart. Nearby you'll find the Indianapolis Museum of Art, which houses one of the largest general collections in the United States.

Other major attractions include the delightful Conner Prairie, a living history museum that instantly transports visitors to 19th century Indiana and Traders Point Creamery, an organic farm producing all of the yogurt for Whole Foods nationwide.

But as much as there is to love about Indiana's capital city, it's only getting better.

The 63,000-seat Lucas Oil Stadium opened in August 2008. Featuring a retractable roof, this multi-function stadium is not just home to the Colts, but the 2010 and 2015 NCAA Men's Final Fours, Big Ten Football Championship Games since 2011, the 2012 Super Bowl, music competitions, conventions, trade shows and concerts.

In February 2021, Bankers Life Fieldhouse will host the NBA All-Star Game, followed six weeks later by the NCAA Men's Final Four at Lucas Oil Stadium. The stadium will host the College Football Playoff national championship game in January 2022 and the men's Final Four again in 2026.

The new $1 billion Weir Cook Terminal also has opened at Indianapolis International Airport. It was the first terminal to be constructed post-9/11 and features state-of-the-art security and convenience.

Recently completed is a complex of four hotel properties known as Marriott Place. The complex, adjacent to White River State Park and the Indiana Convention Center, includes 1,600 rooms and brings to 4,700 rooms (most in the country) connected to a convention center complex.

Whatever your pleasure – nightlife, museums, sports, music, arts, dining, shopping – you'll find it in Indy, all contained in a remarkable package of ease and convenience. That's why we #LoveIndy.

These lenses must be stored behind the photographer when the action is in the near side of the court.

During game action, news crews must shoot crowd reaction from designated areas. No interviews will be allowed within the seating bowl once game action begins.

DR. ALLISON BARBER
PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

@DrAllisonBarber
TWITTER

"Take it to the hoop!"

Her basketball career began and ended as a young girl in her driveway in Schererville, Ind., but the advice from her father has shaped Dr. Allison Barber's career.

From grade school teacher to communications strategist in the White House and United States Department of Defense; and as the first chancellor and chief fundraiser for Western Governor's University (WGU) Indiana, Dr. Allison Barber has a successful record of building brands to maximize exposure and impact.

Indeed, her goal as president and chief operating officer of the Indiana Fever is to grow Fever fans in all 92 Indiana counties through the tenets of commitment, competition and contribution. Hired March 4, 2019, she is just the second chief executive in the Fever's 20 years of existence, replacing Kelly Krauskopf who built and shaped the franchise through its first 19 seasons.

"I am energized by this new opportunity to serve our team, our city and state," said Barber.

Barber was most recently the president of Western Governors University Advancement, the non-profit fundraising arm of WGU Indiana, the state's online, competency-based university. She previously served as chancellor of WGU Indiana, helping the university experience unprecedented growth in helping Hoosiers improve their lives by earning a college degree – growing from 250 students to 5,000 students and enrolling students in all 92 counties of the state.

Her portfolio includes more than 25 years of experience in education and public service. Prior to her position at WGU Indiana, she was the president of Sodenta, her own communication firm in the Washington, D.C. area. She was also an adjunct professor at Georgetown University. She spent more than seven years at the Department of Defense serving as a Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense. She also worked as Special Detail to the Office of Global Communications in the White House during the early stages of the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq.

Earlier, she was president of the Washington D.C. office of PlowShare, a communications and advertising agency. Before that, she was public relations director for the American Red Cross. She began her career as a grade school teacher at Merrillville Public Schools in Indiana and served as vice president of the teacher's association.

Barber holds a B.S. in Elementary Education from Tennessee Temple University; a M.S. in Elementary Education from Indiana University; and a Ph.D. In Leadership from Tennessee Temple University. She was recognized as a Woman of Influence by the Indianapolis Business Journal and is the recipient of the Department of Defense Medal for Distinguished Public Service awarded by Defense Secretary Donald H. Rumsfeld.

In March 2019, she was presented with Indiana's highest honor, the Sagamore of the Wabash, presented by Governor Eric Holcomb. Barber is a state lead volunteer for the American Red Cross and serves on the boards of the Indiana Chamber of Commerce, Techpoint, Indiana Internet and the Elizabeth Dole Hidden Heroes Foundation.

TAMIKA CATCHINGS
VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

@Catchin24, @CatchTheStars24
TWITTER

A four-time Olympic gold medalist and 16-year WNBA superstar with the Indiana Fever, Tamika Catchings was elevated to vice president of Fever basketball operations on March 4, 2019. She works directly with the Fever coaching staff while maintaining day-to-day operations

Previously, she served as director of player programs and franchise development with Pacers Sports & Entertainment since April 2017, working with all three PS&E basketball franchises – the Indiana Pacers, the Indiana Fever and the Fort Wayne Mad Ants.

Widely regarded for her own community work and professional leadership as a player, Catchings is uniquely qualified for her position. She joined the Indiana franchise in 2001 when she was the club's first-round draft selection – just one year after the Fever was established. As a face of the Fever franchise through 16 seasons, she has been a constant ambassador and respected representative of the NBA, WNBA and Pacers Sports & Entertainment throughout her career.

More than a basketball player, Catchings has routinely earned distinction as one of the nation's finest citizen-athletes with committed community engagement throughout the country and even internationally. In 2015, she was inaugural winner of the ESPN Sports Humanitarian of the Year. In 2016, she became the first two-time recipient of the WNBA's Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award and the first three-time winner of the WNBA's Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award. Following her final season, she was honored in consecutive weeks with the Pathfinder Award by the Indiana Sports Corporation, honoring those who improve the lives of America's youth; and the Musial Award by the St. Louis Sports Commission, for extraordinary sportsmanship.

Catchings matched an Olympic basketball record for men or women by earning her fourth Olympic gold medal in 2016. The 12-time All-WNBA recipient and 10-time WNBA All-Star helped lead the Fever to a league-record 12 consecutive playoff appearances, 13 overall. The 2011 league MVP and 2012 Finals MVP, she retired as the leading rebounder in WNBA history, and its No. 2 all-time scorer. She was named the WNBA Defensive Player of the Year an unprecedented five times.

Catchings continues to serve as a national and international ambassador for the NBA and WNBA, and was recently named to USA Basketball's Women's Developmental National Team Committee.

She also began a broadcasting career as a college basketball analyst during the 2016-17 college season with ESPN. In 2019, she will begin her third year covering Fever games broadcast on MyINDY-TV 23, alongside Pat Boylan.

Married in February 2016 to former Pike High School and University of Buffalo basketball player Parnell Smith, she added local business owner to her resume when she purchased a tea shop, TeasMeIndy, in March 2017. She is the daughter of former NBA star Harvey Catchings, and her sister, Tauja, was drafted by the Phoenix Mercury in 2000. Tamika and Tauja established the Catch The Stars Foundation in 2004.

For Catchings' WNBA career details, please see page 115.

GAME ENTERTAINMENT

FREDDY FEVER

The friendliest Fever fan of them all! During Fever games, it's easy to pick out Fever fans of all shapes and sizes, but no one has the shape and size of the Fever's team mascot, Freddy Fever.

One of the top mascots in the WNBA, Freddy can be seen throughout Bankers Life Fieldhouse before, during and after Fever games. The lovable and huggable character is a fan favorite among children and adults. Freddy does it all – from dancing, riding goofy scooters, aggravating officials, performing hysterical skits and much more. He keeps fans laughing from tipoff to the final buzzer.

Freddy has the ability to tickle anyone's funny bone, but there's also a softer and lovable side to him. Freddy loves the Fever's fans and enjoys interacting with fans on a one-on-one basis and in groups. Freddy is often involved in numerous charitable efforts throughout the Indianapolis community. His schedule is hectic year round, but he wouldn't have it any other way.

In addition to being at every Fever game, Freddy is also available for birthday parties, corporate events and other similar-type events. For more information about Freddy, or to book the biggest Fever fan for your next event, call (317) 917-2500.

Coordinated and choreographed by former Pacemate Michelle Duggan, the Inferno is made up of a diverse group of young dancers that provide energetic entertainment during timeouts of Fever home games. Explosive tumbling and high-energy hip-hop dance routines are performed during every Fever home game. These youngsters are definitely fan favorites. Watch them once and you're hooked on their energy.

Along with performing at Fever home games, the Inferno makes appearances throughout the spring and summer months. The dance team joins the Fever players, coaches and front office staff in various community events.

PACERS FOUNDATION, INC.

Behind every statistic can be a story about a kid, at-risk, who needs help.

From abuse to bullying to obesity to drugs, Indiana's youth can face many obstacles. That is why the Pacers Foundation gets involved by funding programs that help provide positive opportunities and experiences for our young people.

Since its inception in 1993, Pacers Foundation has contributed more than $8 million in contributions, community partnerships, scholarships and tickets to Pacers and Fever games.

We are committed to making a positive difference in the lives of at-risk youth in Indianapolis and throughout Indiana. In doing so, we can help make our Hoosier communities better places to live, work and play.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

In the most recent fiscal year, the Pacers Foundation awarded nearly $400,000 in grants to 58 youth-serving non-profits throughout the state of Indiana. We are especially interested in forming partnerships that serve not only our youth but the greater good in our communities. One such partnership is with the Indianapolis Parks Foundation in a continuing effort to refurbish outdoor and indoor basketball courts at City Parks throughout Marion County. As the courts are refurbished, they are co-branded with Fever, Pacers and We Grow Basketball Here logos. More recently, the Pacers Foundation provided a grant to the Indianapolis Police Foundation to aid public safety personnel in fostering positive relationships with youth in some of Indianapolis' most high-risk neighborhoods.

BE A PART OF THE SOLUTION

We are not a traditional corporate foundation, supported solely by our corporate parent. We strongly believe that helping Indiana's youth make winning life choices requires all of us in the community to do our part. Therefore, we invite you to join us in this effort by supporting our two major fundraising events, the Pacers Foundation Golf Outing in September and, in partnership with the Simon Youth Foundation, the Masquerade in October. Yet another form of support can come by purchasing a Pacers Foundation license plate through the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles.

INDIANA FEVER BOWLING TOURNAMENT/FEVER CARES FUND

Members of the Fever team and coaching staff serve up strikes at an annual bowling tournament which benefits the Fever Cares Fund of the Pacers Foundation. Fever sponsors, season ticket holders and fans are treated to a night of bowling fun, pizza, a silent auction and autographs from the Fever team and other celebrities.

The 2018 event raised over $13,000. The 2019 tournament will take place at Pinheads in Fishers on Tuesday, July 16.

The vision of the Fever Cares Fund is to be recognized as a leading funding resource for programs that encourage the development of valuable life skills among young women throughout the state of Indiana. These programs build self-esteem, promote a positive body image and educate about dating violence while providing services to those who have experienced such violence.

Specific to the Fever Cares Fund, organizations benefiting since 2001, among others, are the Children's Bureau, Girls Inc. of Indianapolis, Girl Scouts, The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, The Julian Center, and the Social Health Association.

POKEY CHATMAN
HEAD COACH & GENERAL MANAGER

TWITTER

The sixth head coach in Indiana Fever history, Pokey Chatman boasts an accomplished record with success at every level of women's basketball. After six seasons as head coach and general manager of the Chicago Sky, Chatman was named to her post with the Fever on Nov. 18, 2016.

Assuming duties as general manager after her first season as coach, Chatman begins her third season in Indiana after engineering Chicago's ascent in the WNBA's Eastern Conference, guiding the Sky to their first playoff appearance in 2013 and leading the franchise to the WNBA Finals a year later. She finished her assignment in the Windy City with a 106-98 regular season record, four straight playoff appearances and an 8-12 mark in the postseason.

Prior to her time in the WNBA, she enjoyed a 20-year career at Louisiana State that included four seasons as a starting point guard, followed by assignments as assistant coach, associate coach and, for three seasons from 2004-07, head coach. During her lengthy tenure at LSU, she attended three Final Fours and was a part of 13 NCAA Tournament teams. As acting head coach and head coach, she led the Tigers to three consecutive Final Fours including a 2005 loss in the national semifinals at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis. She earned national coach of the year accolades in her first full season in 2005.

Her diverse resume also includes a pair of EuroLeague titles with Spartak Moscow, first as an assistant in 2008, and another while serving as head coach of the Russian powerhouse for four seasons from 2009-13.

Internationally, Chatman was a part of two gold-medal teams with USA Basketball. As a player, she won gold with the USA's U18 squad that won the FIBA Americas championship in Brazil in 1988. She was an assistant coach with the U.S. team at the World University Games in 2005 in Turkey. She also coached the national team of Slovakia for two seasons.

LSU

A 1987 graduate of Hahnville High School and a native of Ama, La., Chatman dazzled LSU fans for four years as LSU's starting point guard in the late 1980s and early 1990s. Her fiery demeanor and floor leadership helped her transition to coaching and a 16-year tenure on the LSU coaching staff. She served as a student assistant coach for one season (1991-92) before accepting a full-time post as assistant coach in 1992-93. Chatman was elevated to associate coach in 1999. She was the Lady Tigers' acting head coach in 2003-04 after hall of fame coach Sue Gunter took a midseason medical leave. Chatman became the school's fourth head coach in April 2004.

There are few coaches in basketball history that can match the success that Chatman enjoyed in her three-plus years as head coach of the LSU women's basketball program. Counting her time as acting head coach, LSU won 105 games (105-19), advanced to three NCAA Final Fours, won two Southeastern Conference regular season titles and earned a No. 1 seed in two NCAA Tournaments.

In fact, in Chatman's first 50 games as a head coach, she won an astonishing 47 times. That 47-3 record was noted as the second-best record after 50 games in women's basketball history. Soon after she assumed head coaching reigns late in 2003-04, she introduced LSU to its first NCAA Final Four, with subsequent appearances each year thereafter.

Once regarded as one of the nation's best recruiters, she quickly became known as one of the top up-and-coming coaches in the collegiate ranks. Since her promotion to associate coach in 1999, the Lady Tigers participated in seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments.

Chatman assumed LSU's recruiting efforts in the mid-1990s and the program climbed instantly. The Lady Tigers had eight straight classes rank among the top 20 in the nation, including a 2004 freshman class with three Parade All-Americans and future WNBA draft picks: Sylvia Fowles, Quianna Chaney and Erica White. Chatman later helped land Seimone Augustus, now a perennial WNBA All-Star who finished her LSU career as a two-time national player of the year and the WNBA's No. 1 draft pick (2006).

Chatman helped sign Aiysha Smith, a 2003 first-round pick of the Washington Mystics; DeTrina White, the 1998-99 national freshman of the year and a second-round pick of the Fever in 2003; current WNBA player Doneeka Hodges and Temeka Johnson, a first-round pick of the Washington Mystics and the 2005 WNBA Rookie of the Year who broke Chatman's career assists record.

Besides Johnson and White whom she recruited, Chatman helped tutor some of the finest guards in the country. Marie Ferdinand was a 2001 Kodak All-America selection who became a first-round WNBA draft pick and a WNBA All-Star. Elaine Powell enjoyed a lengthy career with three WNBA titles as part of the Detroit Shock. Pietra Gay was a member of the 1997 WNBA champion Houston Comets.

Inducted into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1999 prior to her head coaching role with the Lady Tigers, Chatman quickly rose to the top of her profession. Capping her first season as head coach in 2005, she won multiple national coach of the year accolades. She was named the Black Coaches Association Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2005, and the Louisiana Coach of the Year in 2005 and 2006.

EUROPE, CHICAGO SKY & WORLD'S GREATEST PLAYERS

Chatman made her entrance into the WNBA, with the Sky in 2011, in the midst of a six-year coaching run in Europe. Success on both continents helped cement her status as one of the world's most versatile, top young coaches.

Hired to coach the Slovakian national team in 2008, she served simultaneously as an assistant coach with Spartak Moscow, a star-studded Russian club that annually employed one of Europe's top teams. Chatman was elevated to head coaching status with Spartak prior to the 2009-10 campaign which netted a 16-0 EuroLeague record and the club's fourth consecutive EuroLeague championship.

The following summer, her Slovakian team narrowly missed an upset bid to the 2010 FIBA World Championships. Months later, Chatman accepted her position as the Sky's general manager and head coach, Oct. 29, 2010, just as she embarked on her second of four seasons as head coach with Spartak.

During four seasons with Spartak, Chatman's rosters were filled with a myriad of Olympians and All-Stars, comprising many of the world's greatest women's players: U.S. Olympians Augustus and Fowles from her LSU teams, U.S. Olympic co-captains Sue Bird and Diana Taurasi; foreign Olympic stars Lauren Jackson and Sonja Petrovic; and American veteran stars Candice Dupree, Becky Hammon, Epiphanny Prince and Taj McWilliams-Franklin.

Chatman and Spartak returned to the EuroLeague Finals again in 2011, and posted Final Eight finishes in 2012 and 2013, just as she began reversing WNBA fortunes in Chicago.

The Sky recorded a pair of 14-20 campaigns in 2011 and 2012 before Chatman nabbed Elena Delle Donne with the second selection of the 2013 WNBA Draft. Chatman surrounded Delle Donne, the 2013 WNBA Rookie of the Year and a future MVP, with additional young talent through the draft. She executed trades for star veterans Cappie Pondexter and Erika de Souza.

Chatman and the Sky reached the playoffs for the first time in club history in 2013 to begin a four-year playoff run. In 2014 she led the WNBA's youngest team to the team's second postseason appearance and, following series wins over Atlanta and Indiana, guided the Sky into the 2014 WNBA Finals.

COACHING STAFF

POINT GUARD

Long before turning the Sky into a playoff contender in Chicago, Chatman began breaking barriers as a college point guard. She helped LSU to its first Southeastern Conference Tournament title as a senior point guard, and later helped the program climb the national rankings as both an assistant and head coach.

Playing for the legendary Gunter from 1987-91, Chatman led the Lady Tigers to the 1991 conference tourney championship while earning honors as the tournament MVP. It capped a career that featured three All-SEC awards and her naming as a Kodak All-American as a senior. She played in four NCAA Tournaments at LSU and left the playing floor with an 82-38 record.

Still the school's record-holder in career steals (346), she owned the LSU assists standard for 14 seasons before she watched it fall while patrolling the sidelines. The Louisiana native ushered in the 3-point era at LSU by pacing the Lady Tigers in 3-point percentage in each of four seasons. She led the SEC in 3-point field goals made as a junior and senior.

Born June 18, 1969, Chatman earned a bachelor's degree in general studies from LSU in December of 1991.

Veteran college, international and WNBA coach Christie Sides returns to the Indiana coaching staff for 2019, her second year with the Fever.

Most recently at Northwestern University, Sides is beside Pokey Chatman, with whom she has spent a combined 13 years at Louisiana State, overseas in Russia and Slovakia, and in the WNBA.

"Christie's a veteran coach with a wealth of WNBA experience," said Chatman, who was aided by Sides during the Chicago Sky's run to an Eastern Conference championship and trip to the WNBA Finals in 2014. "Her ability to effectively communicate, and develop players with enthusiasm, is simply unmatched. Having previously worked together in college, abroad and in the WNBA, I am confident she will positively impact our team and organization."

Sides was an assistant coach at Northwestern during the 2016-17 season, and named in May 2017 as associate head coach. She resigned prior to the 2017-18 season to begin her new post with the Fever. Prior to her stint with the Wildcats, she spent six seasons as assistant coach at Chatman's side with the Sky.

From 2009-13, Sides served as an assistant for Spartak Moscow in Russia, where she helped Chatman lead Spartak to consecutive FIBA EuroLeague Championships in 2009 and 2010, and five Final Eight finishes overall. Sides also served as Chatman's assistant with the Slovakian Women's National Team for two years in the same period, helping the program to an eighth-place finish at the European Championships in 2009.

When Chatman accepted the Sky's position as head coach and GM prior to the 2011 season, the duo maintained their Russia-to-Chicago schedule for three years as they began building the Sky into a conference contender.

From 2004-07, Sides was an assistant on the LSU staff with Chatman as head coach. She helped guide the Lady Tigers to three Final Fours and two Southeastern Conference regular season titles in three seasons with the team.

Prior to LSU, Sides spent the 2003-04 season at Louisiana Tech as an assistant coach. Sides began her coaching career as the head JV coach and assistant varsity coach at Ruston (La.) High School. While at Ruston, Sides helped guide the Lady Bearcats to consecutive state playoff appearances.

As a player, Sides played her first two college seasons at Ole Miss for Hall of Fame coach Van Chancellor and helped the Rebels to a 34-22 overall record. She transferred to Louisiana Tech where she finished her playing career for fellow Hall of Fame coach Leon Barmore. Sides helped the Lady Techsters to a 61-6 record in two seasons, including a trip to the 1999 Final Four. She still holds the career record at Tech for 3-point field goal percentage (.448).

Born Jan. 17, 1977, Sides is a native of Baton Rouge where she led Central Private High School to a state championship as a senior and earned the Louisiana Gatorade Player of the Year award and all-state honors. She ended her high school playing career ranked No. 1 in school history with 3,375 points.

Miller managed opponent scouting operations and video coaching with the Sky, participating in daily practices at home and on the road.

After playing professionally for five seasons with DJK Brose Bamberg in Bamberg, Germany, Miller returned to coach the Bamberg club in 2016-17 and 2017-18.

A captain and four-year starter at UIC, Miller helped the Flames to the WNIT before playing overseas with DJK Brose Bamberg, from 2010-15.

"Jessie understands the league and will be key as we continue to build on the success of this franchise," said Chatman.

TULLY BEVILAQUA
PLAYER DEVELOPMENT COACH

After six record-setting seasons as an Indiana Fever point guard, Tully Bevilaqua begins her fourth season as player development coach for the Fever.

She also serves as a Fever TV analyst for five local games this season on WISH-TV/MyINDY-TV 23.

A native of Merredin, Australia, and recently named to the Western Australia Hall of Champions, Bevilaqua earned a silver medal in the 2008 Olympics with the Australian National Team, and a gold medal at the 2006 World Championships. She completed 14 WNBA seasons between Cleveland (1998), Portland (2000-02), Seattle (2003-04), Indiana (2005-10) and San Antonio (2011-12). She also won a pair of WNBL championships in Australia as part of a 20-year pro career that began in 1991 with the Perth Breakers in her home country.

After winning the 2004 WNBA title as a reserve guard with Seattle, Bevilaqua signed a free agent deal with Indiana and made an instant impact. Spurred by an engaging personality and Australian accent, she became a fan favorite at Bankers Life Fieldhouse and, from her first season with the Fever, Indiana reeled off 12 consecutive playoff appearances.

Named as a member of the Fever's All-Decade Team in 2009 and its 20th Anniversary Team prior to the 2019 season, Bevilaqua joined Tamika Catchings to spark a resurgence reflected by Indiana's WNBA-record 12 straight postseason appearances, three trips to the WNBA Finals and a 2012 championship. Bevilaqua was the club's starting point guard for six straight years, leading Indiana to its first Finals appearance in 2009 and aiding in the development of future star Briann January.

The 2007 recipient of the WNBA's Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award, Bevilaqua was a six-time member of the WNBA All-Defense Team – all with Indiana and all beside Catchings. Her 573 steals ranked 10th among WNBA career leaders at the time of her retirement. Her 356 steals with the Fever are second in club history. She started an Indiana-record 116 consecutive games spanning the 2006-08 seasons, and started 188 of 197 Fever games overall, the fourth-highest figure in franchise history. Elsewhere in the Indiana record book, she ranks fourth in 3-point field goals and fourth in assists.

"Signing Tully back in 2005 was a turning point in our franchise." said former Fever President Kelly Krauskopf. "She brings tremendous knowledge, experience and work ethic. I am proud to add a former player to our staff who has been such an integral part of our success."

Since her retirement as a player, Bevilaqua has maintained residence in Indianapolis and become certified as a personal trainer. She is co-owner of Gym41, a local gym she established in 2011 that specializes in boot camp training, small group training, cardio boxing and yoga classes. She has spent the past two years as a volunteer assistant coach with the Zionsville High School girls basketball team, helping the Eagles to back-to-back sectional championships.

Bevilaqua and wife Lindsay have two children: Parker (8) and Mackenzie (6).

A versatile guard with size and a 50-game starter over the past four seasons with Indiana, Johnson missed the second half of the 2017 campaign and all of 2018 after sustaining a torn left ACL during practice in July 2017. She was acquired in a February 2015 trade with San Antonio, and with the Fever compiled arguably her two best seasons as a pro, including a trip to the 2015 WNBA Finals. She was tops in the WNBA in free throw percentage (60-of-64, .938) in 2016, ending the year with 40 straight made charity tosses (second in franchise history).

She plans a return to the court in 2019.

PRO-WNBA

2018: Rehabbing from a 2017 left ACL injury, Johnson was cleared for practice and contact in late July 2018, but a hamstring pull and Indiana's elimination from the playoffs dictated a delay in her return to the court.

The owner of 96 career double-doubles, Tamika Catchings scored in 455 out of 457 games played. She scored in every game for 7+ seasons before going scoreless for the first time in 2009. During that stretch, she went more than a full season, 37 games, with 10 or more points in every game.

The 2016 Fever were known for uncanny scoring balance. Through the first 16 years of Indiana Fever basketball, the club produced six double-figure scorers in the same game just four times - once in 2000, 2007, 2011 and 2012.

Then, in 2016, the Fever produced consecutive games (May 18 & May 20) with SEVEN different players scoring 10+ points in the same game. Two months later on July 10, Indiana was one point shy of producing a third game with seven double-digit scorers.

Former USA National Team teammates Tamika Catchings and Natalie Williams were double-double threats almost every game. Three times during their tenure together from 2003 to 2005, the duo posted double-doubles in the same game. They helped Indiana reach the WNBA Playoffs in 2005.

GAME

Tamika Whitmore's 41 points for Indiana in a 98-83 playoff loss at Detroit, 8/19/06, was a WNBA Playoff record until 2010. Whitmore made 15-of-22 shots and added 10 rebounds in what was one of the greatest playoff performances in league history. Pacing the Fever while Tamika Catchings was lost for the second half due to a concussion, Whitmore scored 25 points in the second half, including 15 in the third quarter.

Shavonte Zellous' 30 points in Game 3 of the 2012 WNBA Finals matched the third-highest scoring output in Indiana playoff history. Zellous hit 10-of-17 shots in the game while staking the Fever to a stunning 37-point third-quarter advantage (70-33), which is the largest lead in Finals history. Zellous shot 18-of-18 from the FT line during the series and closed the 2012 campaign with 19 straight free throws made.

Erlana Larkins established a new Fever record with 109 rebounds during the 2012 playoffs. She matched a league standard with nine offensive rebounds and grabbed 20 boards overall in Game 3 of the East Semis to match Tamika Catchings' mark which is second in league playoffs history. She twice registered 15 rebounds in the Finals, which fell one shy of the single-game mark in a championship series.

20TH ANNIVERSARY DEDICATION: ANNE DONOVAN

The Indiana Fever were deeply saddened last summer (June 13, 2018) by the loss of Anne Donovan, a legendary figure both on and off the basketball court and remembered specifically as the Fever's first coach. As the Fever celebrate the 20th anniversary of their franchise in 2019, Donovan is remembered for her place on the sideline during Indiana's first season.

"Anne Donovan meant a great deal to me, professionally, personally and to our franchise," said Kelly Krauskopf, then President of the Fever and the club's only chief executive through its first 19 seasons. Krauskopf hired Donovan as the team's interim coach for its inaugural season in 2000 while general manager and head coach Nell Fortner concluded her stint as coach of the U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team.

"First and foremost, she was a personal friend of mine," added Krauskopf. "I have lost a friend and someone who's had an impact on the basketball world, certainly with the Fever. She'll forever be part of our history. She's always been a part of our family."

"We've shared a lot of stories and a lot of laughs over that first season. There will never be another first year. And there will never be another Anne Donovan. She was a professional and a class act. The roots of women's basketball are embedded with her name, and so is our franchise."

Pacers Sports & Entertainment and the Indiana Fever offer heartfelt condolences to the Donovan family.

Fever legend and four-time Olympic gold medalist Tamika Catchings retired in 2016 as the first WNBA player ever to appear in 10 All-Star Games. She scored 108 points in those games, leaving as the leading scorer in All-Star Game history.

WNBA PLAYOFFS FORMAT

WNBA PLAYOFFS FORMAT

The top eight teams with the highest winning percentage (regardless of conference) will qualify for the 2019 WNBA Playoffs.

• The first and second place teams will be seeded in the semi-finals and the third and fourth place teams will be seeded in the second round.

• In the first round, the fifth seed will host the eighth seed, and the sixth seed will host the seventh seed in a one-game elimination. The winners from round one will be re-seeded to guarantee the third seed will host the lowest seed, and the fourth seed will host the higher seed, each in a one-game elimination second round.

• The winners from the second round will be re-seeded to guarantee the first seed will host the lowest seed, and the second seed will host the higher seed, each in a best-of-five game series (2-2-1) with the top seeds hosting games 1, 2 and 5; and the lower seeds hosting games 3 and 4.

• The winners from the semifinals will meet in a best-of-five game finals series with the top seed hosting games 1, 2 and 5; and the lower seed hosting games 3 and 4.

Tiebreaker Procedure

The following tiebreak procedure shall be used to break ties for playoff eligibility, home court advantage and draft order. In determining draft order, non-playoff teams will always select before playoff teams.

a. Two-Way Tie Between Teams. In order to break a tie, the following criteria will be utilized in the order set forth:

(1) Better record in head-to-head games.
(2) Better winning percentage against all teams with .500 or better record at the end of the season.
(3) Better point differential in games - net result of total points scored less total points allowed, head-to-head.
(4) Better point differential - net result of total points scored less total points allowed, against all opponents.
(5) Coin toss.

b. More Than Two Teams Tied. As many teams as possible will be eliminated at each step. As soon as one or more teams are eliminated at any step, the process must begin again from step (1).
